

Terms Made With Teamsters

Increases in pay, reduction of hours for certain employes, seniority rights, preferential shop and other advantages will accrue to some 1,500 employes of the United Parcel Service, which serves more than 300 stores, as the result of an agreement signed yesterday by the company and Local 804 of the Teamsters' Union, A. F. of L. Max Meyer, a member of the State Board of Mediation, acted as mediator. The contract will run until Jan. 31, 1939.

The New York Times

Published: December 8, 1937

Copyright © The New York Times